

Acknowledgement

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to all the authors for their outstanding contribution in our book 'Instruments in Obstetrics and Gynaecology'. This comprehensive guide has been an invaluable resource, providing detailed insights into the instruments used in obstetrics and gynaecology. Their expertise and dedication to this field are evident in the quality of this book."

No words to thank Sister Neeraj who helped us in collecting pictures for the book. I thank my colleagues, mentors, and collaborators who offered insights and reviewed the content. My sincere thanks to Dr. Pulkit for quality control and layout design. Last but not the least, I wish to show my indebtedness to my parents, who made me capable of doing this. Thanks to my Husband and my kids who had been the constant motivators.
